

Accountability In Action 2nd Ed A Blueprint For Learning Organizations

Accountability In Action 2nd Ed

In ethics and governance, accountability is answerability, blameworthiness, liability, and the expectation of account-giving. As an aspect of governance, it has been central to discussions related to problems in the public sector, nonprofit and private and individual contexts. In leadership roles, accountability is the acknowledgment and assumption of responsibility for actions, products

1. Focus on What you Can Control - Being persistent and having a "back to the drawing board" attitude when students failed to learn what they had been taught. It's not what the parents can or can't do or what neighborhoods they do or don't live in. At the end of the day, we must do what we can within our sphere of influence.
