Los Angeles Coliseum

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is an American outdoor sports stadium located in the Exposition Park neighborhood of Los Angeles, California, United States. Conceived as a hallmark of civic pride, the Coliseum was commissioned in 1921 as a memorial to L.A. veterans of World War I. Completed in 1923, it will be the first stadium to have hosted the Summer Olympics three times: 1932, 1984, and 2028.

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum - Wikipedia

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is totally shut down, as they are renovating it for the new Los Angeles Rams Team. This is an older stadium with extremely limited parking. It was a hassle trying to figure out where to park, especially since the new soccer stadium is only a block away, and they don't have any parking either.
