Manner Of Death

By Dr. Amy Hawes and Dr. Darinka Mileusnic-Polchan Medical examiners understand that a family may disagree with a manner of death determination.¹ We are also acutely aware of the perceived stigma of a suicide manner of death determination. Some medical examiners may allow a suspicion of suicide to be overridden by reluctance to impose that stigma.² However, it is important to emphasize that ...

Life. In Judaism, life is valued above almost all else. The Talmud notes that all people are descended from a single person, thus taking a single life is like destroying an entire world, and saving a single life is like saving an entire world. Of the 613 commandments, only the prohibitions against murder, idolatry, incest and adultery are so important that they cannot be violated to save a life.
