Purposeful Conferences Powerful Writing Strategies

When we meet with our students to talk about reading, there are hundreds of questions we could ask. But rapid-fire questions from us could leave our students wondering if perhaps we've had too much caffeine. Instead, we want to get super streamlined, and focus on a single purpose. By being clear ...

As Allan Odden writes, our failure to improve schools isn't because we lack funding or know-how. What we lack are the "will and persistence" to maintain a focus on the best practices that we already know but that are grossly underutilized (Odden, 2009, p. 22). As Jim Collins writes, the key to success is not innovation; it is a combination of "simplicity and diligence" applied with fierce ...
