The Pike was an amusement zone in Long Beach, California. The Pike was founded in 1902 along the shoreline south of Ocean Boulevard with several independent arcades, food stands, gift shops, a variety of rides and a grand bath house. It was most noted for the Cyclone Racer (1930-1968), a large wooden dual-track roller coaster, built out on pilings over the water.

I purchased this Bunny Racer for my son's Easter basket. He was 14 months at the time and didn't really care for it, so the Bunny Racer didn't get much use. About two months later, he started playing with it about once a day for a few minutes (toys only keep his attention for about 5-10 minutes at a time) and within a week the head came off.
